CORNELIUS G. HAYES RETIRES FROM POLICE

Reinstated as Captain on Tues day by Courts-Gets Half Pay.

Haves was working as a typesetter on "The Philadelphia Press" with Henry L. Stoddard, now editor of "The Mail," as his foreman when, in 1886, he was appointed a New York patrolman. He was made a sergeant in 1893 lieutenant in 1893 and captain in 1993. Commissioner McAdoo in 1994 made him captain of the Tenderioin district. He then went to West Forty-seventh Street station and created a sensation by publicly stating that a prominent Taxemany must, the owner of several of the gambling and disorderly houses in the district, was hindering him in his work.

mmissioner Waldo in 1911 made an inspector and sent him to dway to clean up. He raided the bing house of Herman Rosenthal, whose murder Licutemant Speker executed, and was charged by Robal with breaking an agreement or mid the house.

"Becaus. he gave the miners such a free hand all sorts of issues have been drugged in here that had no husiness being heard at the conference," said the operator. "Representatives of the miners spent the entire morning disputing among themselves and refused to see us until 1 o'clock in the afternoon."

when the miners did meet the operators they had completed another "ultimatum," which showed a slight reduction from the one offered to the operators the previous day. Like all the other proposed scales, this one provided for varying wages and working conditions in the different states. Objections of operators who believed they would not have the same opnortunities without any approach to an agreement.
